An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in Warehouse without Payment of Duty.

[18th May 1803.]

WHEREAS it would greatly tend to the Encouragement of the Trade and Commerce of Great Britain, and to the Accommodation of Merchants and others, if certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandise were permitted to be entered and landed, and properly secured, in the Port of London, and certain other Ports in Great Britain, without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, of the Duties of Customs and Excise due on the Importation thereof, on such Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are hereinafter provided: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees of any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, enumerated or described in the Table hereto annexed, marked (A.), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the Port of London, to lodge and secure the same, under the great Locks of the Crown and the Merchant, in any Warehouse or Warehouse licensed at the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, of the Duties of Customs and Excise due on the Importation thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, directed by this Act: Provided always, that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall be so lodged or secured, until and until such Warehouse and other Works belonging or to be let thereto shall be so far completed, that, in the Judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper in every respect for the Reception of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, and whereas the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain, under the Regulations and Directions of this Act; and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized and empowered by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, to certify and make known his or their Approbation of such Warehouse; which Certificate shall be published three Times at least in the London Gazette, and in two or more public Morning Newspapers then usually circulated in London.

III. And whereas from the Bulk of certain Articles, or from other Circumstances, such Articles cannot be conveniently lodged and secured in Warehouses according to this Act; be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees, of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, enumerated or described in the Table hereto annexed, marked (C.), which shall be legally imported or brought into the Port of London, to land any such Goods without Payment at the Time of the first Entry of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, of the Duties of Customs due on the Importation thereof; and such Goods may be lodged and secured at or in such Places, and under such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the first Importer, Proprietor, or Consignor, entering into Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, with one sufficient Surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said Port of London, in Double the Amount of the full Duties due and payable on the Importation of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, with Conditions that such Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, shall be immediately exported in the Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, secured in Warehouses as aforesaid, and exported &c. from thence; or that the full Duties due and payable on the Importation of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall be paid to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the Space of twelve Months from the Date of the first Entry of such Goods.

IV. be it therefore enacted, That before any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, (except Sugar,) which shall hereafter be lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouse, or otherwise secured according to the Direction of this Act, shall be delivered from thence for the Purpose of being exported from Great Britain, the Exporter or Proprietor of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, shall make a due Entry thereof with the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, and shall pay down in ready Money, without any Discount or Abatement whatever, the full Amount of the said additional Duties of Customs granted by the said recited Act, which would have been due and payable for the same, in case such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises had been taken from the Warehouse or Place wherein they had been lodged or secured for the Purpose of being used or exhibited in Great Britain; any Thing in this Act, or in any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That on the shipping for Exportation to foreign Parts of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, which shall have been warehoused, or otherwise lodged or secured, according to the Directions of this Act, the Receiver, or other proper Officers of the Customs, shall, after due Examination thereof, give without Fee or Reward to the Exporter of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, or his Agent, a full and correct Certificate, specifying the Quantity, Quality, and Species of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandises so shipped, which Certificate shall afterwards be delivered to such Officer or other Person as the said Commissioners of the Customs in England or Ireland respectively shall think proper to do so, in order that the same may be entered in a Book or Books to be provided for the Purpose of keeping such Accounts as the said Commissioners may think necessary and proper, with the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees of Goods, Wares, and Merchandises warehoused, or otherwise secured, according to the Directions of this Act; which Certificate, as far as the same will apply, shall go in Discharge of the Accounts of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandises so warehoused, or so shipped, as far as the same will apply, of the Bond given by any such Importer, Proprietor, or Consignor respectively, for the Payment of the Duties of Customs on such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises.

Warehouses shall be allowed Goods being sent the full Duties on Exportation within 12 Months.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, on which the full Duties shall have been paid, and which shall afterwards be delivered or taken from any Warehouse or other Place where the same shall have been lodged or secured, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be duly exported from Great Britain, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be allowed such and the like Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs as would have been allowed on the Exportation of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises respectively, in case this Act had not been made; and also such and the like Drawbacks of the Duties of Excise with respect to any Wine on which the full Duties of Excise shall have been paid; provided the same respectively are exported within the Space of one Year from the Time of the Payment of such full Duties thereon.

XXVI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent Rem of the Produce of the Sugar Plantations, having been warehoused under the Authority of this Act, from being delivered from such Warehouse for the Purpose of being shipped as before without Payment of any Duty of Customs, Duties respectively, as far as the same are applicable, to all the Conditions, Regulations, Restrictions, and Securities required by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on or immediately before the passing of this Act.

Goods for Exportation re-estimated if reloaded, shall be re-estimated.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, which shall have been warehoused or otherwise secured, according to the Directions of this Act, shall, after having been entered for Exportation, be fraudulently unshipped or re-loaded, except by necessity or Distress, or be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Ireland respectively, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs.

In all Cases where, out of which any Goods entered for Exportation shall be reloaded, shall be subject to Forfeiture.

XXVIII. And whereas the Laws now in Force, made to prevent the fraudulently unshipping or re-loading of Goods, Wares, or Merchandises shipped for Exportation to foreign Parts, have not been sufficient to answer the good Purposes thereby intended, and it is expedient, in order to prevent such illicit Practices in future, that where any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, which shall have been shipped for Exportation to foreign Parts, are by the Land now in Force, or by this present Act, made liable to Forfeiture for being fraudulently unshipped or re-loaded, that the Ship or Vessel out of or from which any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises shall be so unshipped or re-loaded, shall also be liable and liable to Forfeiture; be it therefore enacted, That where by this present Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in Force at the Time of passing this Act, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, which shall have been shipped in order to be exported to foreign Parts, are or shall be liable to Forfeiture for or on account of the same being unshipped or re-loaded, then and in such Case the Ship or Vessel out of or from which any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises shall be so unshipped or re-loaded, shall be liable and liable to Forfeiture, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or of the Excise, in Cases where that Revenue is concerned;

How Forfeiture
may be recovered.

Provided always, That in any Case in which it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Customs

Customs

Customs in England or Scotland respectively, or of the Excise, as the Case may be, that such Goods be shipped or re-loaded either did not form any Part of the Cargo of the said Ship or Vessel, or were of small Value, and that from the Nature and Quantity of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, and the Circumstances attending the unshipping or re-loading thereof, the same was done without the Privilege or Knowledge of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to remit such Duties, and declare the Return of such Ship or Vessel to be safe and ready; and in such Case no Person or Persons whatsoever shall be entitled to bring or prosecute any Suit or Action on account of any such Remission as aforesaid.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Importers or Importers, Proprietors or Proprietors, Consignees or Consignees of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, which shall have been lodged in any Warehouse or Warehouse, to be provided according to the Directions of this Act, or otherwise licensed, shall within fifteen Calendar Months, to be computed from the Day on which such Importers, Proprietors, or Consignees of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall have made their first Entry thereof, clear and take from and out of such Warehouse or Place respectively, either for Exportation, according to the Directions of this Act, or to be consumed in Great Britain, all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise; and in such Case Importers, Proprietors, or Consignees, shall fail or neglect to do so, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, to cause all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, to be publicly sold or exposed to Sale; and after such Sale the Produce thereof is first to be applied to or towards the Payment of the Freight, Primage, and Charges, of Warehouse Rent, and other Charges that shall arise thereon; next the Duties of Customs and Excise; and the Overplus, if any, to be paid to the Proprietor or other Person authorized to receive the same; provided that no such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise shall be so sold, until a Price can be obtained for the same equal at least to the full Amount of all Duties of Customs and Excise charged and chargeable thereon, together with the Expenses thereon; but if such Price cannot be obtained, then and in such Case all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall be effectually destroyed by and in the Presence of the proper Officers of the Customs, and also of the Officers of the Excise, in Cases where such Revenue is concerned, who are hereby respectively authorized and required to destroy the same accordingly; and the Proprietor or Owner of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall have no Claim, either by Law or Equity, to the Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, or any Part thereof so destroyed as aforesaid; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful and legal for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland respectively, and they are hereby authorized and required, to make such Allowance to the proper Officers, Clerks, and all other Persons employed in the Service of the Customs, whose Duties shall be reduced by the Operation of this Act, in loss of and by way of Compensation and Satisfaction for the same, as they in their Discretion (having Regard as well to the creditable Substitution of the Officers, as to Publick Economy) shall judge necessary; provided always, that nothing in this Act contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to repeal or in anywise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Ballage, or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate within Great Britain, or to repeal or in anywise alter the Privilege of Wine, the Duty called Barlitage, or any other special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law; but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

" This Act shall not affect the local Acts 39 G. 3. c. 10. 43 G. 3. c. 101. as to W<sup>g</sup> Inlet Docks, or 39 E<sup>d</sup> 40 G. 3. c. 13. as to London Docks, &c."

XXXI. And whereas certain of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandise intended to be warehoused under the Provision of this Act, are subject to very high Duties of Excise on the Importation thereof, and it is therefore expedient that the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandise should be imported, landed, warehoused, and delivered for Home Consumption or Exportation, as the Case may require, under the Rates, Regulations, and Restrictions respectively heretofore provided; be it therefore further enacted, That before any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, subject or liable to a Duty of Excise, on the Importation thereof, shall be unshipped or landed for the Purpose of being warehoused before Payment of the Duties, the Importer or Proprietor shall make Entry thereof in Writing with the proper Collector of Excise, specifying in such Entry the Name of the Ship or Vessel, and the Master thereof, the Number and Marks of the Cases, Cases, Bags, Boxes, or other Packages, the Kind or Species of Goods, Wares, or Merchandise contained in each, and at what Port or Place the same was loaded or taken in.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no foreign Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Spirits, or Aqua Vite shall be warehoused before Payment of the Duties, unless the same shall be imported in Cases of one hundred Gallons each at the least; nor shall any foreign Wine be so warehoused before Payment of Duty, unless imported in Cases containing at least fifty-five Gallons each; nor shall any Coffee or Cocoa Nuts be so warehoused before Payment of Duty, unless the same shall be contained in Cases, Bags, Boxes, or other Packages of at least one hundred and twelve Pounds Net Weight each.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, subject to any Duty of Excise, shall be allowed to be warehoused before Payment of the Duties, good and sufficient Security shall be given, to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Justice or Justices appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, which Security such Justice or Justices are hereby authorized and empowered to take by Bond to Double the Value of the Duties charged or chargeable on such Goods, Wares, or Merchandise respectively, for Payment of all and every the said Duties respectively, before the same shall be taken or delivered out of any Warehouse in which the same shall or may be, or may have been lodged or deposited under or by virtue of this Act, for Home Consumption; or in case the same shall not be taken or delivered out of any such

WHEREAS by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, it was enacted, As Act for the further protecting his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereof; and for further regulating the Ports of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, for the Time being, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Management of the Harbour and Wharves of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity House of the Cinque Ports, or the major Part of them, in an Assembly commonly called a Court of Load Management to be held by the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, during the Continuance of an Act of the said Year of his late Majesty's Reign therein mentioned, to make such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as should be thought fit and convenient; and to order and direct a practicable and sufficient Number of the respective Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, not less than six, to give assistance at Sea at all reasonable Times, to be ready to conduct such Ships and Vessels upon the Return of Troops and Merchants, as should have Occasion for them; and that it should be lawful for the said Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with such Assent as aforesaid, and at such Court of Load Management, to suspend or deprive any of the said Pilots for breaking such Rules or Orders, or omitting any Duty prescribed by the same, or for acting in any way contrary to such Rules or Orders; and if any of the said Pilots be suspended or deprived, during the Time of such Suspension or Deprivation, he should take such Licence or Certificate to conduct any Ship or Vessel by or from Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, as are Ships or Vessels, as he upon the said Return of Troops and Merchants, such Pilots should be liable to do, as if he were not so suspended or deprived; and that the Lord Warden for the Time being, or his Deputy, the Lieutenant of Dover Castle, or his Deputy or Deputies, or any one of the Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots residing at Dover or Deal, or any one of such Wardens residing at Margate or Harwich, should have Power to hear and determine any Cause complained of by the said Pilots, such Rules and Orders, and upon Conviction of such Pilot, to inflict such Punishment of Suspension or Deprivation as the said Rules and Orders may direct, in the Case may require; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Management, and of the Harbour and Wharves of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity House of the Cinque Ports, or the major Part of them, in an Assembly commonly called a Court of Load Management, to be held by the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, shall within six Weeks after the passing of this Act, proceed to make, and shall make all such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as shall be by them thought fit and convenient, as well relating to the Services of the said Pilots in making Charge of and conducting and navigating his Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and the Ships and Vessels of his Majesty's Empire, and the Ships and Vessels of Merchants, up the said Rivers of Dover and Margate, as to the Services of the said Pilots in conducting and navigating his Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and the Ships and Vessels of his Majesty's Empire, on the Coast of France, Flanders, and Holland, and in the Baltic Sea, and for officiating respectively to his Majesty's Performance of such Services; Drawbacks on Table C. and D. shall be paid on Exportation of refined Sugar from Great Britain to Ireland.

To what Extent additional Bounty on refined Sugar exported, § 25. will be in force. Shall be allowed.

VI. And whereas it is expedient that a Bounty should be allowed for a limited Time on the Importation of salted and pickled Salmon, and salted dry Cod Fish from the Island of Newfoundland, and the Coast of Labrador, into the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; be it therefore enacted, &c.

Such captured Ship or Vessel, or Goods, and upon the said Preparatory Examinations, it shall appear doubtful to the said Judge whether such Capture be lawful Prize or not, and it shall appear to him to be necessary, according to the Circumstances of the Case, for the clearing and detaching such Doubts, to have an Examination of Witnesses, on Proofs given in by the Parties and adjourned by the Judge, or such other lawful Mode of Enquiry, in the said Judge may think proper; that then the said Judge shall forthwith cause such Capture to be appraised by Persons well skilled in the same, to be named by the Parties, and approved and appointed in this Court, and fees truly to appraise the same according to the best of their skill and Knowledge, for which Purpose the said Judge shall cause, if he shall think fit, the Goods found on board to be unladen, and an Inventory thereof being first taken, if the Judge shall think necessary, by the Marshal of the Admiralty or his Deputy, shall cause them to be put into proper Warehouse, with separate Locks, of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs; and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer, and the Agents or Persons employed by the Captors and Claimants, at the Charge of the Party desiring the same; and shall, after such Appraisal, and within the Space of fourteen Days after the making of the said Claims, proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Claimants to pay the Captors the full Value thereof, according to such Appraisal, in case the same shall be adjudged lawful Prize, and shall also proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Captors, to pay such Costs as the Court shall think proper, in case such Ship, Vessel, or Goods, shall not be adjudged as lawful Prize; and after such Security duly given, the said Judge shall make an Interlocutory Order for releasing or delivering the same to such Claimant or Claimants, or his or their Agents, and the same shall be actually released and delivered accordingly.

XIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Claimant or Claimants shall refuse to give such Security, the Judge shall cause the Captor or Captors, in like Manner, to give good and sufficient Security to pay the said Claimant or Claimants the full Value thereof according to the Appraisal, in case any such Captor or Captors shall be adjudged not to be lawful Prize, and the said Judge shall thereupon proceed to make an Interlocutory Order for the releasing and delivering the same to the said Captor or Captors, or their Agents.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by any Order in Chancery to fix and ascertain proper and adequate Salaries for the Judges of Vice-Admiralty Courts, established or to be established in the Indies and Westward Islands, and likewise at the Island of Malta in the Mediterranean, not exceeding the Sum of two thousand Pounds per Annum for any of such Judges; and such Salaries shall be fixed, payable, and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, and further that such Salaries shall be charged and chargeable, and paid and payable in like Manner in every Respect, and under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Prerogatives, and Forfeitures as are contained in an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's King, entitled, An Act for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts in Westminster-Hall, and also of the Lords of Appeal, Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland; and for enabling his Majesty to grant Annuities to Persons in certain Offices in the said Courts in Westminster-Hall, and other Regulations of their respective Offices; and that the Salaries now paid or payable to the Judges at Jamaica, Barbadoes, and Halifax, be paid and payable in like Manner.

His Majesty may allow such Judges, on their Resignation, scilicet per Annum after Six Years' Service, or in case of permanent Infirmary,  $\frac{2}{3}$  Parts of Judges shall not exceed scilicet per Annum beyond their Salaries.—
 Account thereof shall be transmitted to the Navy Board,  $\S$  22. [See 43 G. 3. (U.K.) c. 96, s. 4, 4.]

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all such Captures as aforesaid, which shall be brought into any of his Majesty's Dominions abroad, in order to be proceeded against in Condemnation in any of his Majesty's Courts of Vice-Admiralty, being thereto duly authorized, shall, without breaking Bulk, stay there, and be under the joint Care and Custody of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, then of the Naval Officer of the Port or Place where the same shall be brought, and the Captors or Claimants thereof, or their Agent or Agents, subject to the Direction of such Court of Vice-Admiralty, until the same shall by final Sentence have been either cleared and discharged, or adjudged and condemned as lawful Prize, or that such Interlocutory Order as aforesaid shall have been made for the releasing or delivering the same; and upon the said Condemnation or Adjudication in lawful Prize, shall be immediately delivered into the Captors thereof or their Agents: Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall affect any of the Regulations contained in an Act passed in the forty-fifth Year of his Majesty's Regency, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Majesty's Prize Courts in the West Indies and America, and for giving a more speedy and effectual Execution to the Decrees of the Lords Commissioners of Appeals; but that all the Regulations of the said Act shall be carried into full Force and Effect.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Books, Papers, and Writings, found in any Ship or Vessel taken as Prize, shall without Delay be brought into the Registry of the Court of Admiralty, upon Oath, wherein such Ship or Vessel may be proceeded against, in order to Condemnation; but that such Books, Papers, and Writings, shall be made use of and transcribed, so long as they shall be agreed or relied upon by the Prize or the several Parties, Captors, or Claimants, or in case of an Objection, by the Captor, or his Prosecutor or Agent, or Registrar, to be necessary for ascertaining the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and Cargo thereof.

XXV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Captor or Captors, Claimant or Claimants, shall not well think fit with the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, leaving the Force of a Definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in the High Court of Admiralty of England, or in any Court of Admiralty, or Vice-Admiralty, in any of his Majesty's Dominions, duly authorized to proceed in Prize Causes, it shall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties thereby aggrieved to appeal from the said High Court of Admiralty, or from any of the said Courts of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, to the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for receiving, hearing, and determining Appeals in Cases of Prize, such Appeals to be interposed and received in the like Manner as Appeals to the Commissioners in Prize Causes have been usually interposed and received from the said High Court of Admiralty, and good Security to be likewise given by the Appellant or Appellants that he or they will sufficiently prosecute such Appeal, and also pay such Costs as shall be awarded, in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, having the Force of a definitive Sentence of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, be affirmed; and That if this Act continued to the contrary thereof it signify notwithstanding: Provided always, that the Execution of any Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, having the Force of a definitive Sentence, appealed from a Admiralty, shall not be suspended by reason of such Appeal, save as is herein-after provided, in case the Party or Parties appellants shall give sufficient Security, to be approved of by the Court in which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given, to release the Ship, Vessel, Goods, or Effects, concerning which such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to the Appellant or Appellants, in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree so appealed from shall be reversed.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in case any Person who was not a Party in the said Instance of the Cause, shall intervene or be interposed as Appellor from a Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, having the Force of a definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Admiralty Court, such Person, or his or her Agent or Agents, shall at the time of his entering his or her Claim, otherwise such Appeal shall be null and void.

XXVII. And whereas great Inconveniences have arisen by Appeal in Prize Causes not being prosecuted in a reasonable Time, and from great Appeals or Protests of Appeal being entered before a Navy Paymaster, without any Notice given to the Court or Parties appellants, or their Proctors: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That every Person, being a Party or not a Party in a Prize Cause in the High Court of Admiralty of England, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court, and against whom a Sentence shall hereafter be given, or any Interlocutory Decree having the Force of a definitive Sentence pronounced, and who shall appeal therefrom, shall prosecute such his Appeal by taking out the usual Exhibitions, within twelve Months after the Time such Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall be given; and that after the Expiration of the said Term of twelve Months without any Exhibitions having been taken out, no Appeal shall be allowed to be prosecuted by any Person being a Party or not a Party in the said High Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, nor shall any Exhibitions be granted at the Prayer of such Person or his Proctor, but the said Sentence or Interlocutory Decree shall stand confirmed as to such Person: Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of Appeals, in all Cases in which it shall appear that a Diligence has not taken Place, to permit an Appeal to be prosecuted after the Term of twelve Months elapsed, where upon special Cause shewn, they shall deem such Permission fit and reasonable to be given.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That in case any Appeal shall be interposed from a Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, having the Force of a definitive Sentence, given or pronounced in any Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty concerning any Ship or Vessel, or Goods or Effects, which have been, or now are, or shall hereafter be seized and taken in Prize, that then and in such Case the Judge of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty shall and may, at the Request, Costs, and Charges, either of the Captor or Claimant, (or of the Claimant only in case where the Privilege is retained in favour of the Claimant, by any Treaty or Treaties subsisting between his Majesty and foreign Powers,) make an Order to have such Capture appraised, which the Parties shall otherwise agree upon the Value thereof, and an Inventory to be made, and then take Security for the full Value thereof accordingly; and thereupon cause such Capture to be delivered to the Party, giving such Security in like Manner as it herein-before is made, notwithstanding such Appeal; and if there shall be any Difficulty or sufficient Objection to the giving or taking Security, the Judge shall, at the Request of either of the Parties, order such Goods and Effects to be entered, loaded, and sold by public Auction, under the Care and Custody of the proper Officers of the Customs, and under the Direction and Inspection of such Persons as shall be appointed by the Clerks and Captors, and the Moneys arising from the Sale shall be brought into Court, and by the Register, Deputy Register or Deputy Registers of the said Court, be deposited in the Bank of England, or (in case the Captors and Claimants shall agree thereto) in four public Securities, at Interest, in the Names of the Register, and of such Trustees as they the said Captors and Claimants shall appoint, and the Court shall approve; and if such Security shall be given by the Claimants, then the Judge shall give such captured Ship or Vessel a Pass under his Seal to prevent its being again taken by his Majesty's Subjects in its destined Voyage.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Sentence or Interlocutory Decree, having the Force of a definitive Sentence of such Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, shall be finally reversed after Sale of any Ship or Goods, pursuant to the Direction in this Act contained, the Net Proceeds of such Sale (after Payment of all Expences attending the same) shall be drawn and taken to be the full Value of such Ship and Goods, and that the Party or Parties appellants, and their Securities, shall not be answerable for the Value beyond the Amount of such Net Proceeds, unless it shall appear that such Sale was made fraudulently or without due Care.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Judge, Register, or Deputy Register, Marshal or Deputy Marshal, or any other Officer whatsoever, or belonging to any Court of Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty, nor any Person or Persons practising either as Advocates, Proctors, or otherwise, in any such Court or Courts, shall be concerned or involved, directly or indirectly as Owners, Part Owners, Share, or Adventurers, in any private Ship or Ships, or Vessel or Vessels of War, whatsoever, having any Commission or Commissions, or Letter of Marque or Letters of Marque; and in case any such Judge, Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, Deputy Marshal, or other Officer, Advocate, or Proctor whatsoever, shall notwithstanding this Act be directly or indirectly concerned or interested as aforesaid, such Judge, Register, Deputy Register, Marshal, Deputy Marshal, or other

Cap. cxxvii.

An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act, passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for promoting the Trade of Dublin, by rendering its Port and Harbour more commodious, and for repairing and improving the Walls of the River Swan Liffey, in the City of Dublin; and also for empowering the Corporation for repairing and improving the Port of Dublin, to build and repair Bridges over the said River within certain Limits. [17th July 1803.]

" Racial of Irish Acts, 26 G. 3. c. 39. 32 G. 3. c. 35. 40 G. 3. c. 47."

" And whereas it hath been found that the Provisions in the said recited Act, made in the thirty second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repairing the Walls of the said River Swan Liffey, on the South Side from Carroll's Bridge Eastward to Barrow Bridge Westward, and on the South Side from Crowne Quay Eastward to Barrow Bridge Westward, are insufficient for the said Purpose: And whereas the said Walls of the said River on both Sides thereof, from Carroll's Bridge Eastward to Barrow Bridge otherwise called Biely Bridge Westward, excepting the Walls of Crowne Quay, and of that Part of Allen's Quay which have been already rebuilt by the Corporation for repairing and improving the Port of Dublin, are now in a very ruinous and dangerous State: And whereas the rebuilding of the Remainder of the said Walls in the same Style and Manner, would tend much to the Improvement of the said Quays, and to the Advantage and Convenience of the Inhabitants thereof, and also of the Inhabitants at large of the District of the Metropolis, and it is therefore expedient that an adequate Fund should be raised for that Purpose, and that the said recited Act should be amended: And whereas one of the Bridges over the said River Swan Liffey, called Ormond Bridge,

* which was situated between Effie Bridge and Sherwood Bridge, both hereby filled, and the other Bridges lying * between Effie Bridge and Sherwood Bridge, and also St. Pauls Bridge aforesaid, are in a State of Decay, and are * become dangerous to the Publick, and it may therefore be found expedient to repair such Bridge or Bridges
 * as it is or are now built, or to build others, or to sink over some Part or Parts of the said River, between Carlyle
 * Bridge and Sherwood Bridge aforesaid: It may therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, &c.

* Compensation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, empowered to rebuild Quay Walls on both * Sides of the River Anna Liffey; also to build and repair Bridges over the said River; § 1. Powers of * former Acts applied to this Act, § 2. Application of Compensation Money, § 3. 4. 5."

VI. * And towards enabling the said Corporation to rebuild, maintain, and repair the said Walls within * the Limits aforesaid, be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Person
 * or Persons who is or are or shall be the Occupier or Occupiers, or any Man or the Possessor of any Ground,
 * or of any House or Houses, or other Building or Buildings, which are or shall be erected on any Ground
 * situate either on the North or South Side of the said River Anna Liffey, between Carlyle Bridge on the East
 * and Sherwood Bridge on the West, and bounding or immediately adjoining and fronting the said River or any * of the Quays thereof, (here and except the several Proprietors and Owners of Ground on Croagh Quay,
 * and that Part of Allen's Quay, the Walls whereof have been already rebuilt by the Corporation for preserving
 * and improving the Port of Dublin), shall yearly and every Year, by two equal half-yearly Payments, on every
 * first Day of August and every first Day of February, for ever, pay or make to be paid to the said Corporation
 * for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin and their Successors at the Ballot Office of the Port of Dublin,
 * for the Term being the Sum of two Shillings by the Year, for each and every Foot, and so in Proportion for * every fractional Part of a Foot, which such Ground, or such House or Houses, Building or Buildings
 * respectively, shall contain in Front of the said River, together with Fees for receiving and collecting the same,
 * at the Rate of five Pence per Cubic, to be computed upon the Sum which shall be so payable by such * Person or Persons respectively; the first Payment of the said Rates to be made on the first Day of April,
 * and first Day of February, which shall next be after the passing of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Rate of Assessment of two Shillings per Foot to be drafted to * be raised as aforesaid, be and the same is hereby exclusively appropriated to rebuilding and keeping in Repair
 * the Walls aforesaid, and that it shall not be applied to any other Purpose or Use whatever.

* Said Rates shall be collected as the Rate under 22 G. 2. c. 35.—Houses shall also be liable to the further * Pound Rate imposed by this Act, § 8. Corporation shall lay before the Court of King's Bench Estimates
 * of the actual probable Expence of rebuilding the said Walls and Bridges, and of how much it may be necessary * to raise by Proportions beyond the said Proportion Rate under § 7.—Grand Jury shall be summoned to * consider said Estimates.—Protestations shall be made by Grand Jury and Rates limited.—Not exceeding * 1s. 10d. in the Pound per Annum, for one, or 2s. 6d. for two or more of such Works, § 9—24."

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of * Dublin, shall for ever hereafter keep a separate and particular Account of all such Sums and Sums of Money as * shall be raised and levied and received by the said Corporation, by virtue of this Act, for the Purpose of * repairing and rebuilding the said Walls; and also a separate and particular Account of all such Sums or Sums of * Money as shall be raised and levied and received by the said Corporation, by virtue of this Act, for the Purpose
 * of repairing any Bridge or Bridges within the Limits aforesaid, which is or are now in need of being repaired,
 * or of building or erecting any Bridge or Bridges which may be built or erected by virtue of this Act, and of * repairing the same when Occasion shall require.

* 15,000*l.* may be granted to the said Corporation by the Directors of the inland Navigation under 20 G. 2. (L)
 * c. 31. in Aid of the Funds granted by this Act."

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Corporation to apply any of the * Rates or Duties directed to be raised, and payable to the said Corporation, by virtue of any former Act, to any * of the Purposes of this Act, but that the same shall be wholly applied to the Purpose for which they were * originally granted, and as if this Act had never been passed; and it is hereby further declared to be the true * Intend and Meaning of this Act, that the said Corporation shall be fully indemnified and saved harmless from * any Expence or Loss in consequence of their having undertaken the Superintendance and Management of the * Works hereby intended.

XXVIII. * And whereas several very necessary and salutary Rules and Regulations are by the Laws now in * Force obligatory on the Masters and Commanders of Passage Boats, Ships, and Vessels actually employed in * conveying Passengers between the Port of Dublin and the different Ports in Great Britain (the Captains and * Commanders of his Majesty's Yachts and Packets, and also of such Ships or Vessels as may be employed in * carrying Expresses or Dispatches, and having a License under the Head and Seal of some Person duly autho-

AN
INDEX TO THE STATUTES
THE UNITED KINGDOM,

From the Forty-first Year of GEORGE III. (U. K.) to the Forty-third Year of GEORGE III. both inclusive.

THIS Index is more detailed than has hitherto been usual: it refers to all the Acts passed since the Union, in the Sessions 41, 42, and 43 George III.; which are printed and to be judicially noticed; as well Local and Personal, as General.

An Endeavour has been made to shew how the various Acts are connected with, or bear upon each other: particularly where several Acts have been passed on the same Subject, or where former are repealed by subsequent Acts.

The Acts which relate to IRELAND or SCOTLAND exclusively, are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Subdivisions according to their several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

Other Acts respecting particular Places are to be looked for according to their several Subjects, by referring to the following General Heads under which the Acts are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of Places, viz. Bridges, Canals, Churches, Galls, Harbours, Paving, Piers;—the Acts under the Title Inclosures and Turnpikes are classed in Alphabetical Order of the Counties in which the Inclosure takes place, or the Road begins.

All Publick Acts relating to Individuals are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of the Persons, under the general Title, Personal Acts.

The Publick Local and Personal Acts are referred to in the Roman Numerals by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions.

References are also made as well from one Head to another, as from various Heads, under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually entered.

It is intended that the Index to each future Volume of the Statutes shall continue to be arranged in strict Conformity to the present Plan; so that all Acts of the same Nature may be referred to under the same Head, though occurring in different Volumes; an Arrangement which has not hitherto been attended to with as much Care and Consideration as might be wished.
